

Julie came and gave a talk at our recent Business Club networking event here at Rainbows Hospice. We received some excellent feedback from delegates highlighting how much they had enjoyed listening to Julie. Her accounts of her world record breaking swims were inspirational and generated much discussion. She left us all with a lot to think about and certainly made us all a lot more aware of a few self-motivational skills.

Many thanks Julie for a great talk and for motivating us all!

Kate Golding
Corporate Fundraiser
Rainbows Hospice for Children and Young People

